RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

1. Developer®

What Is Developer?

Developers see the potential in others. They naturally recognize others’ capacity to change for the better, and they are drawn to people for this reason. Being part of another person’s development is one of the best experiences possible for them. They look for ways to challenge others. They devise interesting experiences to help team members further develop and succeed. All the while, they look for signs of growth — a new behavior learned or modified, a slight improvement in a skill, or a glimpse of excellence or improved flow where previously there were only halting steps. These signs of growth in others fuel Developers, bringing them motivation and satisfaction.

Why Your Developer Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

-----------	-----	------------	---------	---------------

It’s very likely that you might demonstrate how you value certain teammates and care about them as individuals. How? Maybe you listen to them talk about their talents, successes, or aspirations. Some of the insights you collect may prepare you to provide them with opportunities to grow personally or professionally.

Chances are good that you tend to notice people’s potential. Others often feel like you pay attention to who they are and what they are capable of. Your encouragement can make them feel like they are important to you.

By nature, you characteristically pinpoint people’s unique traits, qualities, motivations, strengths, limitations, preferences, and attitudes. How? You spontaneously look for the good in each individual. Then you set up opportunities for them to cooperate with others. Occasionally you compliment people who share their knowledge, skills, or talents with teammates, classmates, coworkers, friends, or family members.

Driven by your talents, you occasionally make people feel worthy by spending time with them. Sometimes you observe individuals to understand the challenges they face. Perhaps you work hard to celebrate the minor and major successes of a person or a group. You might inspire some people to excel when you simply acknowledge what they do well.

Because of your strengths, you inspire your teammates with words that bolster their confidence. You repeatedly remind them they have the abilities needed to attain their goals.

How Developer Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

DEVELOPER + WOO

Your commitment to helping others grow is enhanced by the many people you know. Your network is an educational resource.

DEVELOPER + POSITIVITY

Your patient optimism encourages growth. Investing in raw potential others overlook, you celebrate each small, gradual step toward progress.

DEVELOPER + HARMONY

When you notice potential in a person, you invest in it. When you notice emotional friction in a group, you reduce it.

DEVELOPER + COMMUNICATION

You can help other people grow by having conversations with them or by making presentations to them.

Apply Your Developer to Succeed

Support others' progress by sharing with them what you notice.

- ☐ Make sure to praise people when you see them moving toward a goal. Your ability to spot incremental improvements can motivate them to keep going.
- ☐ Share the vision of potential you see in others. Often, what a person could become is overshadowed by what they see in the moment, but you can help change this.

INFLUENCING

2. Woo®

What Is Woo?

Woo stands for “winning others over.” People with strong Woo talents enjoy the challenge of encountering new people and gaining their esteem. They are drawn to meeting new people. They want to learn others’ names, ask them questions and find common interests on which to build rapport. People with Woo among their top themes can enter a crowd and easily know what to do and say. Some people shy away from starting up conversations because they worry about running out of things to say. People with a lot of Woo do not. They see no strangers — only friends they haven’t met yet.

Why Your Woo Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

DeveloperWoo*Positivity*Harmony*Communication

It’s very likely that you occasionally use compliments, encouraging words or friendly smiles to invite newcomers and outsiders to join discussions. With a little coaxing, you might convince some people that you are their new best friend.

Driven by your talents, you might have a knack for starting dialogue with people, especially outsiders or newcomers. Perhaps your engaging style explains why individuals desire to spend time with you.

By nature, you sometimes prefer the company of people to being alone. You may welcome a wide array of individuals into your workplace, classroom, team, family, club, or social circle.

Because of your strengths, you may easily find the right words to express what you are thinking. Sometimes you offer explanations. Occasionally you discuss ideas. Once in a while, you rely on examples, stories, or jokes to illustrate your main points.

Chances are good that you may function well as a member of a group. Contributing your talents, skills, and knowledge to the team sometimes gives you pleasure. To a certain extent, you are less attracted to projects on which you are isolated from people or expected to work alone.

How Woo Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

WOO + DEVELOPER

Your commitment to helping others grow is enhanced by the many people you know. Your network is an educational resource.

WOO + POSITIVITY

Socially and emotionally influential, you find it easy and enjoyable to meet a new person or to give hope to someone in despair.

WOO + HARMONY

With your engaging social initiative, you can gather a broad, diverse crowd and help that crowd get along so they can work together.

WOO + COMMUNICATION

Your interactions with others are effective because you speak with clarity and a pleasant charm.

Apply Your Woo to Succeed

Discover something about every person.

- ☐ Learn more about people you know — and don't know — by keeping track of their names and some personal details. Use this information to better remember people and even help you introduce them to others they might easily connect with.
- ☐ Ask people open-ended questions to find common interests. You have an exceptional ability to build a rapport with others, making them feel comfortable and more talkative.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

3. Positivity®

What Is Positivity?

People with strong Positivity talents are generous with praise, quick to smile and always on the lookout for the upside of the situation. They always seem to find a way to lighten the spirits of those around them. They are optimistic, hopeful and fun-loving. They celebrate every achievement. They find ways to make everything more exciting and dynamic.

Why Your Positivity Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Developer	Woo	Positivity	Harmony	Communication
-----------	-----	------------	---------	---------------

By nature, you might be more upbeat about life when you are surrounded by teammates, classmates, coworkers, family members, friends, or even strangers.

It's very likely that you may bring an air of excitement to contests when the aim is to have fun. Perhaps you feel good about activities that do not involve keeping scores to decide who wins and who loses.

Instinctively, you may feel content when you are surrounded by practical, credible, and experienced specialists. Sometimes they help you find the right answers to your questions or the correct solutions for your problems. With their help, you might increase your accuracy and increase your likelihood of pleasing people.

Because of your strengths, you may look forward to social events. Perhaps meeting and greeting people delights you. The more you interact with individuals, the more enthusiastic you might be about life.

Chances are good that you may feel upbeat about life when your desire to acquire knowledge or skills is regularly satisfied. You might grow increasingly unhappy with a job or assignment that fails to challenge your mind. Being forced to do the same thing day after day is sometimes depressing. Even when individuals in positions of authority reward you or tell you how much they value your performance, you may eventually have difficulty disguising your dissatisfaction.

How Positivity Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

POSITIVITY + DEVELOPER

Your patient optimism encourages growth. Investing in raw potential others overlook, you celebrate each small, gradual step toward progress.

POSITIVITY + WOO

Socially and emotionally influential, you find it easy and enjoyable to meet a new person or to give hope to someone in despair.

POSITIVITY + HARMONY

Emotion influences performance, so you manage the normal emotional friction in groups and lift individuals' spirits.

POSITIVITY + COMMUNICATION

When you talk with others about what you have together and what is working, it creates hope and restores energy.

Apply Your Positivity to Succeed

Encourage others by reminding them of the positives you see.

- ☐ Commit to praising the people you interact with most. Try to tailor this recognition to each person's needs. When you remind others of the positives you see, they feel better about life, and so do you.
- ☐ Make sure your praise and positivity are genuine. Some people are used to hearing the negatives, so make sure your praise and positivity are authentic. But keep repeating the positives to let these people trust you will always point out the upside.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

4. Harmony®

What Is Harmony?

People with strong Harmony talents want peace and try to bring others together. In their view, little is gained from conflict and friction, so they seek to hold these to a minimum. Those with strong Harmony talents see what people have in common, even during conflict. They try to steer others away from confrontation and toward reconciliation. In fact, Harmony is one of their guiding values. They seek to help individuals, families and organizations work together. When others argue, they steer clear of the debate, preferring to talk about practical, down-to-earth matters that everyone can agree on.

Why Your Harmony Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Developer	Woo	Positivity	Harmony	Communication

By nature, you stay on high alert when you have to manage projects. You are determined to make sure that you can make progress without difficulties, and you pay attention to potential pitfalls so that everyone can move forward together.

Driven by your talents, you now and then create an environment where people can speak and be heard without interruption. Your ability to help certain individuals feel valued and respected may explain why some of them describe you as congenial, helpful, friendly, or nice.

Chances are good that you might educate yourself about the basic facts surrounding certain types of issues or situations. To reduce the possibility of conflict, you may consider everyone’s point of view. Perhaps you help some individuals see where they are in agreement with others. Now and then, you can move specific individuals toward consensus — that is, a judgment arrived at by most of those concerned.

Instinctively, you occasionally search for plans, ideas, or techniques that have proved to be successful. You may be eager to share your practical insights with certain types of people, especially those who are at odds — that is, opposing or quarreling — with one another. Perhaps you can help a few of them move from a position of confrontation to one of general agreement. You might continue to look for ways to create calm or peace within some groups of people or between particular individuals.

It's very likely that you may realize that conflicts or disagreements can arise when you give one person opportunities, resources, or attention that no one else receives. Perhaps you have a knack for keeping everyone's emotions in balance by avoiding saying words or doing deeds that might indicate you favor one or two individuals over the rest.

HARMONY + POSITIVITY

Emotion influences performance, so you manage the normal emotional friction in groups and lift individuals' spirits.

HARMONY + COMMUNICATION

If people get too emotional, your voice calms them down. If discussions get too theoretical, your words become more practical.

Apply Your Harmony to Succeed

Help others manage conflict.

- ☐ Seek out and find areas of agreement in conflict. Help others see this practical side as the potential starting point for resolving the issue.
- ☐ Make collaboration easier by reminding others that a group's strength is the ability to respectfully bring up different ideas. At the same time, you help avoid contentious interactions by knowing what individuals are thinking before coming together in a group.

INFLUENCING

5. Communication®

What Is Communication?

People with strong Communication talents like to explain, describe, host, present and write. Using their natural talents, they bring ideas and events to life. They turn thoughts and actions into stories, images, examples and metaphors. They want their information — whether an idea, an event, a discovery or a lesson — to captivate the audience. This drives them to hunt for the perfect phrase and draws them toward dramatic words and powerful statements, which is why people like listening to them. Their word pictures pique interest, provide clarity and inspire others to act.

Why Your Communication Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

-----------	-----	------------	---------	---------------

Because of your strengths, you sometimes gravitate to discussions with students, researchers, or scholars of history. Perhaps these people serve as catalysts for your thinking about past events or significant figures.

By nature, you may admit that you love to talk. Sometimes you use this gift to help people realize they are worthy and valuable. You might tell stories to illustrate some of their finest qualities or moments of excellence. Perhaps you feel successful when you can show particular people the qualities you see and appreciate in them.

Chances are good that you think best by talking. Speaking helps you clarify your thoughts, and you use words to connect and persuade.

Driven by your talents, you periodically initiate conversations. Your talkative nature may permit you to say whatever is on your mind. To some extent, you are blessed with an ability to talk informally and persuasively. You might feel at ease talking in front of certain audiences or individuals.

Instinctively, you occasionally demonstrate an ease with language. Sometimes you effortlessly verbalize your thoughts. You might delight in the opportunity to share your insights. Maybe you derive exceptional pleasure from actively participating in conversations as long as group members propose ideas, seek solutions, or debate issues.

Apply Your Communication to Succeed

Help people put their ideas into words.

- ☐ Capture other people's thoughts in words and relay them back to these individuals. This will help you connect with people by bringing attention to and refining their messages.
- ☐ If you are in a group, volunteer to summarize any necessary communication after a meeting or social gathering. With your ability to clarify what others say, you bring attention to what needs to be heard.
